From The Director's Desk...

School is out – so are the bugs and the humidity – and we all know what that means: time for your summer reading lists!

As usual, the books on the schools' lists can be found in the corridor linking the Main Library and the Children's Room. For the high school, we also pulled some books that are in the suggested themes.

There is a reduced loan period of two weeks for all summer reading materials in order to keep them moving to everyone who needs them.

If you don't see what you're looking for on the shelf, please check at the Reference Desk where the Librarian can place a hold for you.

The statewide theme this year is "Building a Better World" and the Children's room as some great decorations, including Winnie the Pooh in an airplane!

Adults, too, can join in on the fun. The Adult Summer

Reading program includes a raffle and I've been told, some sort of "awesome shindig", not to be confused with a jamboree or hootenanny...

Coming soon, too, brought to you by the Friends of the Library, will be a cart of paperback books stationed at the Hawthorne Pool which you're free to take and read while you relax in the summer sun.

Enjoy!

Volunteers Needed for Friends Book Sale

The Friends of The Library are looking for volunteers to help keep the book sale room in order.

We receive so many donated books, we need help to process them all and place them in the right place in the book sale room to help patrons find what they need and keep things up to date.

Anyone looking to get involved as a library volunteer for just a few hours a month should contact 973-427-5745 x 11 or ask for Adam.

Adult Summer Reading Program: Update

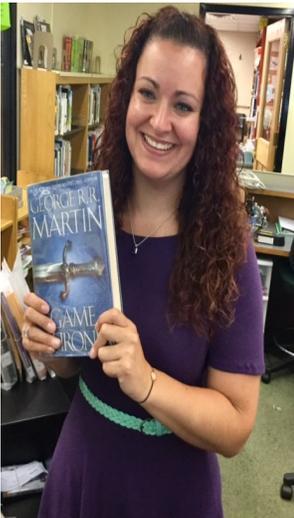

Dean Martin (actually singer Dave DeLuca) was at LB2 to celebrate what would have been the 100th birthday of the Rat Pack crooner to start the month.

The Chamber of Commerce held a very successful internship fair which led to many teens getting positions in town for the summer.

Kids and their dads had caricatures drawn as an early father's day gift. And we celebrated Harry Potter's 20th "birthday" with a full day event with movies, crafts, decorations and prizes! (see the following page for more Harry Potter fun!)

Staff Picks For The Summer!

LB2's Circulation Assistant Stef has a list of five library items she recommends!

- 1) Game of Thrones novel by George R.R.Martin - I watched the TV series before reading the novels but this was a great way to get to know all of the characters with a little more depth and understanding.
- 2) Game of Thrones Season 6 DVD - Better get caught up before the next season comes out. You won't be able to hide from the spoilers!
- 3) Little French Bistro by Nina George - A light read about second chances in love and life, not to mention French cuisine.
- 4) Table 19 NEW DVD - Anna Kendrick's new movie, not your quintessential Rom-Com, a must see!
- 5) Lego Batman Movie - Laugh out loud for all ages.

Happy Birthday Harry Potter!

To celebrate the 20th anniversary of the publication of the first Harry Potter book, LB2 went to town with prizes, crafts and fun.

Two fans were waiting outside before the library opened to enjoy the first of the movies screened in our five-movie-marathon.

Word searches and a Snitch-Hunt in the library were rewarded with prizes including a copy of the UK edition of the first book of the series “Harry Potter and The Philosopher’s Stone”.

Young wizards enjoyed Butterbeer - topped with whipped cream and caramel sauce - and many made wands of their own inspired by those seen in the movies.

A Dementor still haunts the YA room and patrons will still be able to get their photo taken at Platform 9 3/4 this summer.

For more information on YA events coming this fall, visit hawthorne.bccls.org and keep checking the notice boards for flyers.

BINGO Was Its Name-oh!

Families are flocking to LB2 for our monthly BINGO nights—and they will continue through the summer, albeit with a change in the normal schedule.

In June, the meeting room was packed with a bumper crowd of almost 50 patrons all dabbing at numbers to win Hershey bars and coupons for free books from the Friends Book Sale room.

The next Family BINGO nights will be held on THURSDAY July 20 at 6:30pm and again on WEDNESDAY August 16 at 6:30pm.

In the fall, we hope BINGO will become a regular monthly fixture and we are considering expanding to weekends too going forward!

the real star before mingling with the audience, posing for photographs and signing autographs!
